

ICE CLASSICS DIRECTOR APPLICATION

Applications are submitted electronically and must contain the following information:

Personal:

- A. Basic contact information – Name, Address Cell Number, Email address.
- B. List any work or other commitments that might conflict with our scheduled ice times and explain how you plan to address the conflicts.

Qualifications – provide the following:

1. Have you ever directed an Ice Show before? If so, give details.
2. Other than listed above, list skating and off-ice experiences that you think qualify you as a show director.
3. List test levels achieved/professional designations
4. Describe any other qualifications or personal characteristics that make you the best candidate for the show director position.

Show Expectations – answer these questions:

1. What do you think are the most important elements of a good ice show?
2. What is your proposed concept for the show? Please be as specific as possible!

Please attach a brief outline of your show theme/idea. Be prepared to present your show idea in detail to the board at the July 10th board meeting. We will contact you with the time you are assigned to present your idea, once all applications have been received. If available, bring suggested song lists, concept art, and costume ideas.
